Hi again! I will send you the information you asked me for and one picture too.

My name is Mariano Calonghi, i'm half argentinian and half italian but i live in Spain now. I'm a student, i'm finishing Engineerin of Telecommunication.

About my music, i'm by my own, writing my own music and recording at home; i record all musical instruments and vocals. My plans for now is to record one EP i'm working on right now and then start to perform in some pubs or something like that. Or maybe search for a band too.

lyrics of the song "350":

*350 is a magic number
it can make you feel so good
and you know there is something you could do*

*350 is the answer
don't search for more
it can save you,
make your soul feel new*

*You got to believe you have to be strong
because you're not
you're not alone
you're with me*

and i'm with you

350 is a perfect number can make you feel so good it can make all your dreams come true

*You have to believe
you have to be strong
because you're not
you're not alone
you're with me*

it can make you feel so good
and you know there is something
you could do*

About the copyright, yes i allow you to use the song.

About the award, it sounds great the certificate signed by you and Bill McKibben! And if you invite me to play in Belgrade it would be really amazing! I would be honored to be there for support the cause.

If you need some more information, let me know. I attached one picture. I'm waiting for you more formal and detailed mail. Thanks again.

Cordially,

may.

Dear May,

congratulations!! Your song has won the 350 climate protection song world cup 2009 organized by 350.org and IAAI.

This is just an advance information; I am going to prepare a more formal email with detailed information on the voting results and planned next steps by Monday January 4th at noon.

I am in email contact with Bill McKibben regarding a Phase II of the initiative "The world synchronized on 350" in which your song as the winning title of this year's contest would play an important role in 350.org activities in 2010.

For the preparation of the public announcement I would kindly ask you to provide us with some information about yourself, e.g.

- who you are (photo and one or two sentences about your person),
- information about your band/musical activities
- lyrics and notes of the song
- information about copyright: we at IAAI and 350.org hope that you allow 350.org activists and supporting media to use your song for promotional and non-commercial purposes the 350.org campaign („Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial 3.0 Unported“ license <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/3.0>); if you have other copyright provisions we will of course respect them but we need to know about them in order to mention it in the announcement of the 2009 winner on Monday
- as you know we don't have for the time being financial resources for the award, so you will receive now a nicely designed winning certificate signed by me and (hopefully) Bill McKibben, we plan to invite you second half of May to Belgrade to perform at an important international conference on Teaching climate change; if our initiative develops as we plan the fact that you have won this award will provide you with a lot of publicity but not right now but around mid of 2010 during implementation of next phase of the initiative and thus in the long run I am sure you will have many indirect benefits and publicity from this award

So I thank you once again for your participation in our 350 climate protection song world cup 2009 and hope to hear from you soon.

I wish you all the best for 2010!

Cordially
